and Sixth Form College

Learning together 4 – 18

Equality statement.

Aylesford School is fully committed to ensuring the equality of education and opportunity for everyone in its school community, irrespective of their race, gender, disability, faith, religion or socio-economic background.

We believe that everyone has a right to be treated fairly and with respect.

Diversity adds to the richness of our community and should be celebrated as a way of strengthening the bonds that bind us together as a society.

We welcome our specific duties under the Equality Act 2010 to ensure that all members of our school community are protected against discrimination, harassment or victimization on the basis of their:

- Age (for employees not for service provision)
- Disability
- Race
- Sex (including issues of transgender)
- Gender reassignment
- Maternity and pregnancy
- Religion and belief
- Sexual orientation
- Marriage and civil partnership (for employees)
